

Questionnaire – Report

ERASMUS+ KA2 “Let’s say stop to violence together”

706 answers by students of all partners of the project (Greece, Turkey, Italy, Romania, Lithuania)

1. How old are you?

706 responses

29,3%: 12 years old

38,7%: 13 years old

23,5%: 14 years old

8,5%: 15 years old

2. Gender

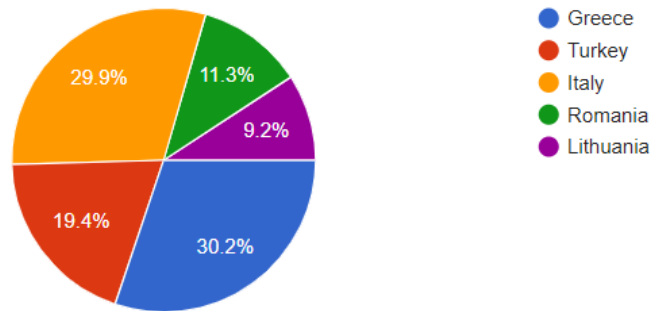

706 responses

55,8%: Girls 44,2%: Boys

3. Country

706 responses

30,2%: Greece

29,9%: Italy

19,4%: Turkey

11,3%: Romania

9,2%: Lithuania

4. What is bullying?

706 responses

49,4% believe that bullying is an aggressive behavior, a reproduction of embarrassing information and a repetitive behavior. 32,7% believe that bullying is only an aggressive behavior, 9,3% that it is only a reproduction of embarrassing information and 8,5% that it is only a repetitive behavior.

5. What is the most dangerous type of violence according to you?

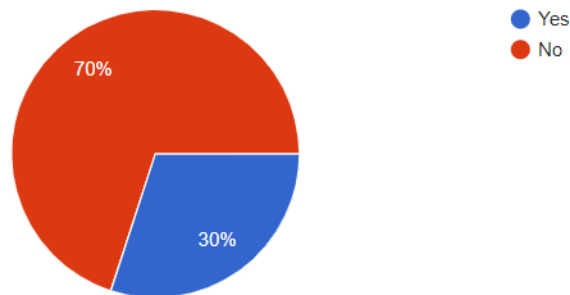

706 responses

44,1% believe that the most dangerous type of violence is the physical one, 22,8 % the emotional one, 12,6% the cyberbullying and only 3,5% the economic one.

6. Have you ever committed any acts of violence,small or serious?

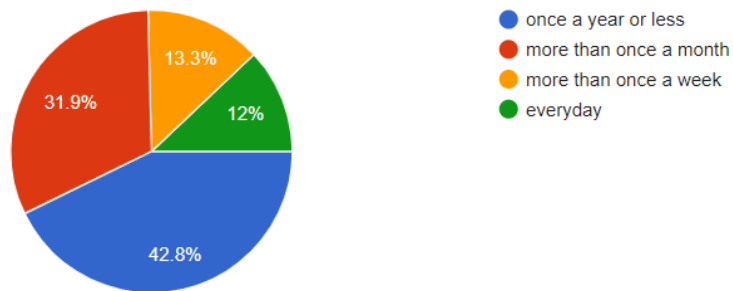

706 responses

In the question whether the students have ever committed any acts of violence small or serious, 70% answer negatively.

7. How frequently does manifestation of violence occur in your school among students?

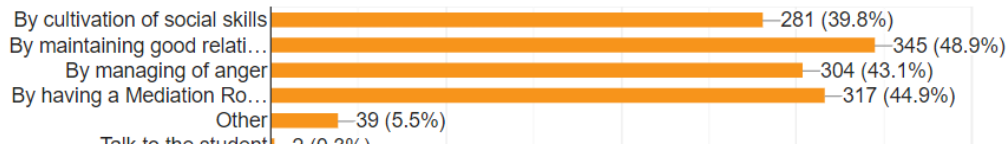

706 responses

42,8% believe that once a year or less manifestation of violence occurs in their school, 31,9% believe that occurs more than once a month, 13,3% more than once a week and only 12% every day.

8. How can school tackle violent acts? (more than 1 answer)

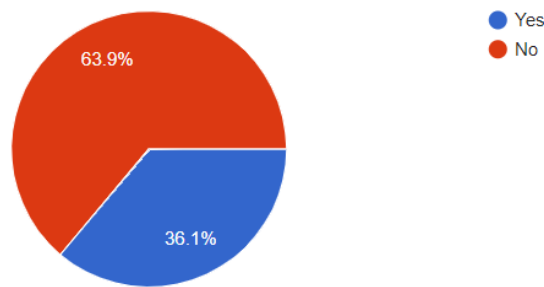

706 responses

48,9% support that school can tackle violent acts by maintaining good relationships, 39,8% by cultivation of social skills, 44,9% by having a Mediation Room and 43,1% by managing anger. Other ideas that students mention: by taking part in activities related to reducing violence, by organizing “stop to violence day”, by learning how to express their emotions, by creating space where all the students are together or extra-curricular activities where students can have fun.

9. Have you ever been the victim of a violent event?

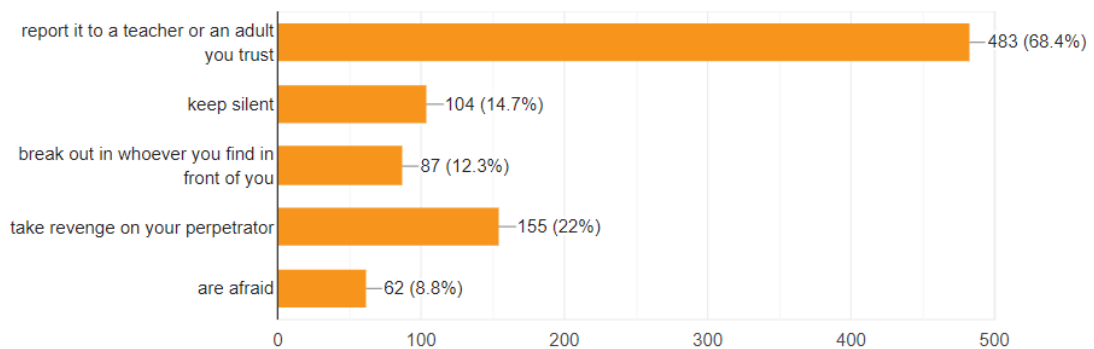

706 responses

In the question whether the students have ever been the victim of a violent event 63,9% answer negatively.

10. If you were a victim of a violent event, you ..

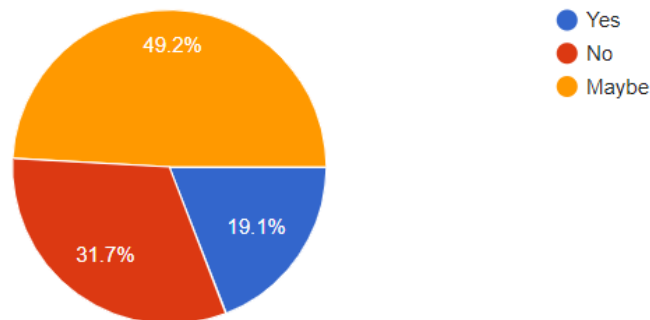

706 responses

If they were a victim of a violent event 68,4% answer that they would report it to a teacher or an adult, 22% answer that they would take revenge on the perpetrator, 14,7% would keep silent, 12,3% would break out in whoever they find in front of them and 8,8% would be afraid.

11. Do you think violence always occurs because of provocation ?

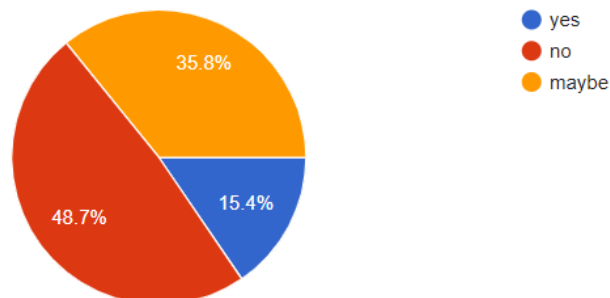

706 responses

49,2% believe that maybe violence occurs because of provocation, 31,7% do not support this, while 19,1% support it.

12. Would you be violent with someone if you were provoked?

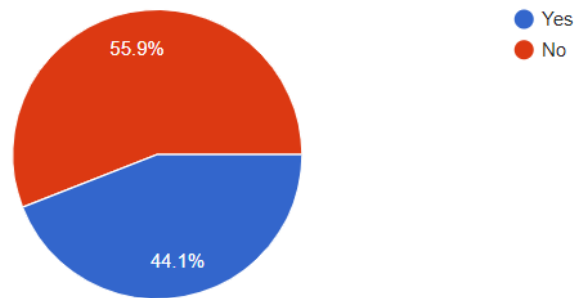

706 responses

In the question whether the students would be violent with someone if they were provoked, 48,7% answer negatively, 35,8% maybe and only 15,5% positively.

13. Do you think that strong people are the ones that generally commit violent action against weaker ones?

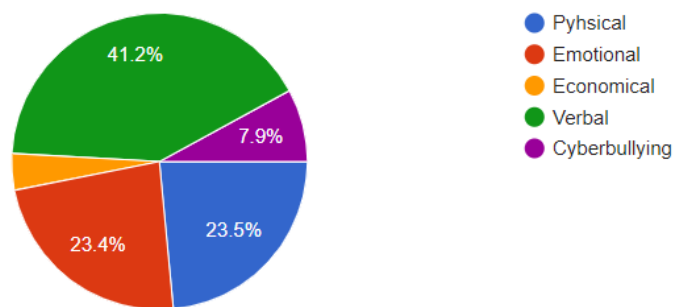

706 responses

55,9% think that strong people are the ones that generally commit violent actions against weaker ones.

14. What is the most common type of violence that occurs at your school?

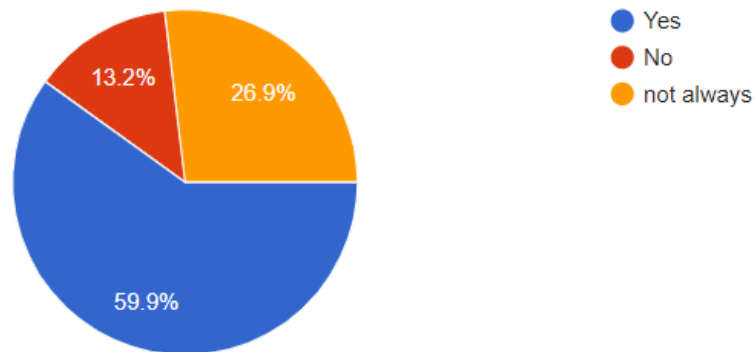

706 responses

41,2% believe that the most common type of violence that occurs at school is the verbal one, 23,5% the physical one, 23,4% the emotional one, 7,9% the cyberbullying and only 4% the economic one.

15. Do you feel safe at your school?

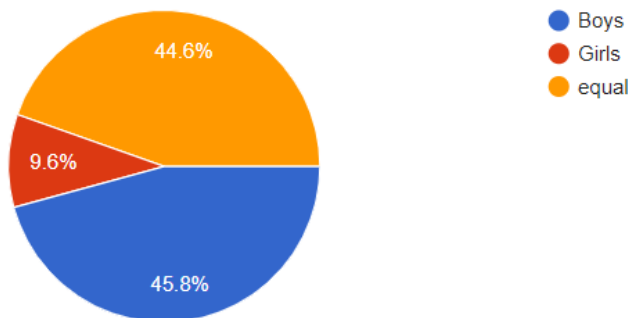

706 responses

59,9% answer that they feel safe at school, 26,9% not always and only 13,2% answer negatively.

16. Who is more prone to violence ?

706 responses

45,8% believe that boys are more prone to violence, 44,6% believe that girls are more prone to violence and 9,6% believe that boys and girls are equally prone to violence.

17. If you witness a violent event in school you ..

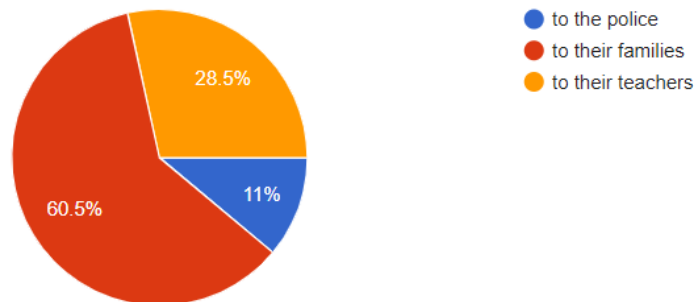

706 responses

In the question if they witness a violent event, what they would do, 45,3% would report it to a teacher, 23,7% would try to stop it, 13,7% would get in the middle to separate the actors, 9,3% would just observe it, 4,7% would do nothing and run away and 3,3% would encourage it.

18. Victims of violent events should report them.....first.

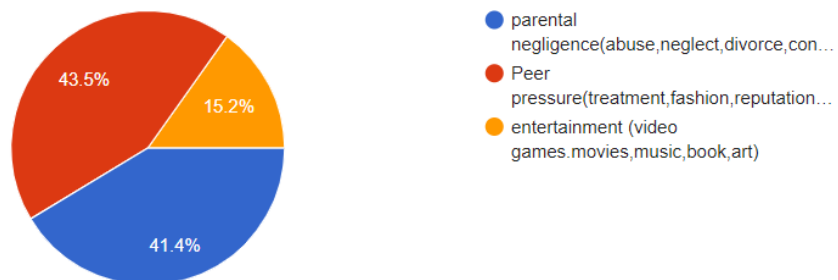

706 responses

60,5% believe that victims of violent events should report it to their families first, 28,5% to their teachers and 11% to the police.

19. Which of the following leads to violence at schools the most?

706 responses

43,5% feel that peer pressure (treatment, fashion, reputation) leads to violence at schools, 41,4% feel that parental negligence (abuse, neglect, divorce, conflicting relationships), 15,2% feel that entertainment (videogames, movies, book, art).

20. Do you think violence can be prevented with a proper education at schools?

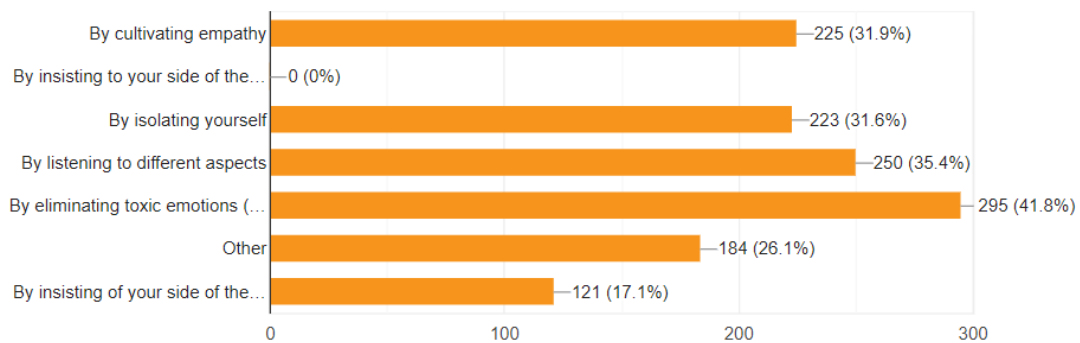

706 responses

40,4% think that violence can be prevented with proper education at schools, 39,2% maybe and 20,4% answer negatively.

21. How can you manage your anger? ((more than 1 answer)

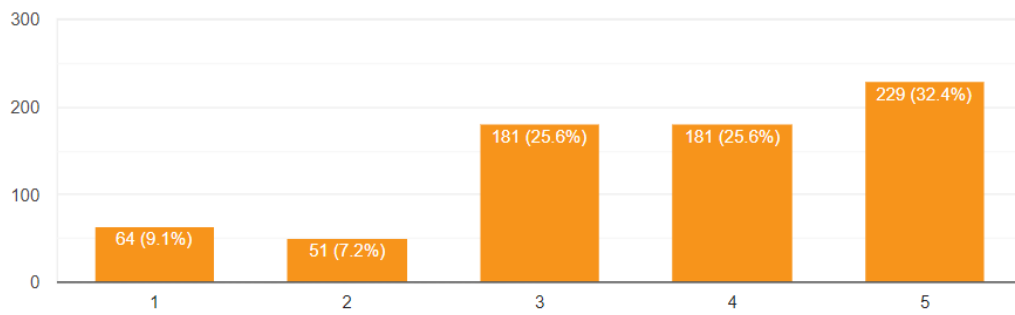

706 responses

41,8% believe that they can manage their anger by eliminating toxic emotions, 31,9% by cultivating empathy, 31,6% by isolating themselves, 35,4% by listening to different aspects, 17,19% by insisting on their side of the story.

22. To what extent, do you believe that the project "Let's say stop to violence together" will contribute to the reduction of violent acts in school?

706 responses

58% strongly believe that the project will contribute to the reduction of violent acts in school.